Translation

NOTE: As a consequence of the government restructuring following the general election on 13 November 2007, the Ministry of the Interior and Health, under whose auspices the election legislation had hitherto belonged, was closed down and its fields of responsibility were transferred to the new Ministry of Social Welfare. Hence, where the following translation refers to the Minister for the Interior and Health, the tasks and duties are now the responsibility of the Minister for Social Welfare to perform.

(3) Grant amounts shall be paid into the bank account stated by the national party organisation or the independent candidate in connection with the application.

Grants are provided for the first time for the calendar year following the calendar year in which the general election was held, cf. however subsection (2), and the last time for the calendar year in which the next general election is held.

(2) If the grant recipient did not participate in the preceding general election or at least 1,000 votes were not cast in his or her favour at that election, the grant pursuant to section 2 shall be provided for the first time for the remaining part of the calendar year in which the general election was held. The grant is provided as a proportional share of the annual amount of the grant counted from the end of the month in which the general election was held.

(3) Grants are distributed in one round, cf. however section 7(3) as soon as the Minister for the Interior and Health has ascertained that the conditions for allocation of the grants are fulfilled. However, grants shall not be disbursed for the relevant calendar year in advance.

7.- (1) Grants pursuant to section 2 shall be provided only to the extent the grant recipient expects to defray the expenses of political work in Denmark in the calendar year for which the grant is relevant.

(2) Allocation of a grant pursuant to section 2 shall be conditional on the grant recipient having submitted a declaration to the Minister for the Interior and Health, stating the minimum expenses expected to be defrayed in respect of political work in Denmark in the calendar year for which the grant is relevant. The second sentence of section 5(2) shall apply correspondingly to the submission of a supplementary application and to a supplementary declaration.

7a.-(1) If the grant recipient has received grants pursuant to section 2 for one or more preceding calendar years, it is a condition for receiving the full grant, cf. section 7(1), for the relevant calendar year that the expenses defrayed in respect of political work in Denmark in the most recent calendar year in which a grant was received shall at least correspond to the full grant for that calendar year. This shall not apply, however, if the most recent calendar year in which a grant was received precedes the calendar year in which the previous general election was held.

(2) If the expenses defrayed in respect of political work in Denmark in the calendar year specified in subsection (1) correspond only in part to the full grant for that calendar year, an amount equal to the non-expended amount of the grant shall be deducted from the grant amount to be allocated in pursuance of section 2 for the relevant calendar year.

(3) If the grant recipient has received grants pursuant to section 2 for one or more preceding calendar years, the grant for the relevant calendar year, except in unique cases, shall be provided on the sole condition that the grant recipient has submitted a declaration to the Minister for the Interior and Health, stating the minimum expenses defrayed in respect of political work in Denmark in the most recent calendar year specified in subsection (1). This declaration must be submitted before the end of the relevant calendar year. The second sentence of section 5(2) shall apply correspondingly to the submission of this declaration.

(2) For the parties specified in subsection (1) a grant provided pursuant to section 2 shall also be conditional on an endorsement by a state-authorised or registered public accountant of the declaration specified in section 7a(3) certifying that the minimum expenses defrayed in respect of political work in Denmark in the most recent calendar year specified in section 7a(1) correspond to the amount specified in the declaration.

7c.-(1) In pursuance of section 2 the Auditor General may require directly from the recipient of a grant that he or she hand over the accounting records regarding the grant provided under section 2 for scrutiny, which is considered by the Auditor General to be of importance to the review of the fulfilment of conditions for grants in pursuance of this Act and to the application of the grant being in proper compliance with this Act. Furthermore, except for sections 4, 6(1), 16, 17(3) and 18(2), the review shall be subject to the Public Accounts Audit Act in pursuance of the first sentence.
